

I am not for relaxing the long-standing rules on media ownership. I feel we need more independent TV and Radio stations not fewer. There will be less choice in programming, less competition, and less diversity. This leads to censorship. We need more public meetings in more cities in the United States.